1. Flight for two people, if the event is not held in St. Petersburg or the Leningrad Region.
2. Transfer in business class to the airport and after the airport to the venue of the event and back. In St. Petersburg and the Leningrad region - only to the venue of the event and back.
3. Accommodation in a hotel not lower than 4 *, if the event requires my presence all day, transfer to the hotel and from the hotel in business class. If the event takes place in the evening and a separate soundcheck is not needed during the day, then a hotel is not required.
4. Separate dressing room, lockable on both sides, with a mirror where I can change and leave my equipment if I need to bring a few violins and/or other equipment with me. If it is not possible to provide a dressing room on the stage, then you need to rent a hotel and transfer me from the hotel to the event location.
5. If the performance implies my presence at the event for more than 4 hours, then a full hot lunch for two is required. (any) If less than 4 hours - enough water without gas and snacks. (fruits, nuts)
